RESOLUTIONS AT CLOSE OF SESSION

Convention Believes Hay and Grain
Below Normal Crops, and Poor
Corn Yield in Northwest

Endorse M. D. Munn as Chairman of Dairymen's Committee on National Food
Conservation

Resolutions adopted by the Minnesota State Dairymen's Association at the close of their two days' meeting in Brainerd read:

"Whereas the present indications in Northern Minnesota are that the hay, grain and corn crops will be below normal, and that the corn crop throughout the entire northwest will probably be poor, and the fact that there is already a food shortage."

Be it resolved that in the face of our national crisis, immediate steps be taken to conserve all grains for human and animal food.

To this end we would request and urge our United States senators from Minnesota, Hon. Knute Nelson and Hon. Frank B. Kellogg to support the bill now in congress to prohibit the use of all grains for the manufacture of intoxicating liquors."

Another endorsed M. D. Dunn as chairman of the dairy committee, national food conservation.

A third thanked the Brainerd Chamber of Commerce and citizens generally for their courtesy and hospitality.

Several days ago a committee of citizens of this city formed an organization, the purpose of which is to arouse enough patriotism in this city to have the president's urgent call for men answered as far as Brainerd is concerned.

A celebration in honor of the men who have answered is to be held July 4th in this city. At that time these men will be brought before the public, and proper exercises will be held in their honor.

Up to the present time there are but two men on this roll of honor. There are but three more days to have your name placed there. The results of this effort for men are to be wired to Duluth to the headquarters for recruiting of this district.

Are you willing to allow two men to step upon a platform on the 4th of July representing Brainerd answering the president's call? You have but three days more to answer.

Special Men

The advantage of enlisting now has been pointed out before in the press. A letter from the war department today authorizes enlistment of the following for the Signal Corps, but no others: Cable, telegraph and radio operators; Inside and outside wire men, electricians, machinists and photographers, and men who are familiar with the construction and maintenance of telephone systems. Must be qualified in these branches.

The First Minnesota Infantry, stationed at Ft. Snelling, at this time is making an urgent appeal for musicians and cooks.

We only ask those to enlist between the ages of 18 and 40 who are in good health and without dependents. On July 4th a roll of honor of those who come under this head will be published in the press, and possibly a roll of those who have not answered.

Do not think, Mr. Eligible Man, that this means someone else. It means you. Go to the army recruiting station, Best theatre building, and have your name placed upon this roll.

TO PREVENT OLD AGE!
COMING TOO SOON!

"Toxic poisons in the blood are thrown out by the kidneys. The kidneys act as filters for such poisons. If we wish to prevent old age coming too soon and increase our chances for a long life, we should drink plenty of pure water and take a little Anurie," says the famous Dr. Pierce of Buffalo, N. Y.

When suffering from backache, frequent or scanty urine, rheumatic pains here or there, or that constant tired, worn-out feeling, the simple way to overcome these disorders is merely to obtain a little Anurie from your nearest druggist, and you will quickly notice the grand results. You will find it thirty-seven times more potent than lithia, and that it dissolves uric acid as hot water does sugar.

St. Paul, Minn.—"I recommend heartily all sufferers of kidney troubles to Dr. Pierce, for what he has done for me cannot be estimated too highly. I have taken many kinds of kidney medicine but I never found any relief until I took three boxes of Dr. Pierce's Anurie Tablets, so I can truly recommend these tablets to all sufferers of kidney troubles. I think I am a well woman in regard to kidney trouble. Whoever is troubled with the kidneys should not hesitate to get these Anurie Tablets for they are worth their weight in gold."—Mrs. W. LINDSEY, 227 Grove Street.

Minneapolis, Minn.—"A short time ago I became all run-down and weak, also was very nervous due principally to woman's trouble. At times was very miserable. I saw Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription advertised as being good for this condition. I got it at once and one bottle completely cured me so that I have not had any trouble since. I am in better health than I have ever been, due, I am sure, to this medicine. I can safely recommend it to others."—Miss JULIA CARROLL, 1312 4th Street N.

SALTS FINE FOR ACHING KIDNEYS

We eat too much meat, which clogs Kidneys, then Back hurts and Bladder bothers you.

Most folks forget that the kidneys, like the bowels, get sluggish and clogged and need a flushing occasionally, else we have backache and dull misery in the kidney region, severe headaches, rheumatic twinges, torpid liver, acid stomach, sleeplessness and all sorts of bladder disorders.

You simply must keep your kidneys active and clean, and the moment you feel an ache or pain in the kidney region, get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any good drug store here, take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and is harmless to flush clogged kidneys and stimulate them to normal activity. It also neutralizes the acids in the urine so it no longer irritates, thus ending bladder disorders.

Jad Salts is harmless, inexpensive, makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which everybody should take now and then to keep their kidneys clean, thus avoiding serious complications.

A well-known local druggist says he sells lots of Jad Salts to folks who believe in overcoming kidney trouble while it's only trouble.

WOMAN'S REALM

White Caps on the Crest of Waves

BY MARGARET MASON,
(Written for the United Press)

Belinda's pretty head is white. But not from fright nor age. She's wearing one of those new hats. Pure white, that are the rage.

White caps on the crests of the fashionable waves are now numerously to be seen. Reared aloft on the waved crests of fashionable devotees it is nautically fitting that the favorite shape of them should be dubbed the Marine.

It is a jaunty little copy of the marine tam o' shanter of white satin braided in white soutache braid with a long silken tassel of white falling from the center over the right ear where the fullness of the tam also flops rakishly.

What more inspiring display of the national colors could one's heart desire than a military cap of white satin with a white straw visor poised above a pair of blue eyes atop a mass of Titian hair?

A cunning little round hat of white satin has its brim rolled up all around with an inch quilling of the white satin standing up on top of that. A French fold of the satin around the crown with a pump bow in front is the only other adornment.

Another similar model of white straw has an upstanding banding of inch high white quills instead of the satin quilling and yet another has the same effect accomplished with white wheat.

Wheat by the way, all white or au naturelle, is sewn as plentifully in the millinery field as it is sown in the country fields. It strives to take the place of the barred aigrette and is so successful in the attempt that but few regret the aigrette. With wheat such a factor in the food crisis of the war it seems only right that we should put it above everything else and what higher eminence can it hope to attain than milady's bonnet.

A huge garden hat of white crin abristle with white wheat jutting out in ray fashion from the crown across the wide brim is most effective. The crown is rather high and narrow.

A tiny turban shaped hat of white faille with wee white wings set in pairs around the edge of the turned up brim as if poised for flight is a little concoction and a draped close turban of white hatter's plush agleam with a sinuous silver tassel bobbing over one side is sufficiently original to attract its full quota of attention.

Velvet and plush are of course the materials of the moment for June, July and August headgear in the usual perverse manner of Dame Fashion's topsy turvy decrees of chiflon for June and fur for July.

A simple but chic model of pleated maline to be worn with lingerie frocks has a crown of white hatter's plush pierce by a large pearl ball hatpin in front for sole ornamentation save for tabs of narrowest white velvet ribbon binding the edge of the maline brim at intervals of one inch. The depth of the binding extends for two inches above and below the brim.

Quite the smartest things in motor togs is offered by a Fifth Avenue house. It consists of a coat and a hat fashioned from a loosely woven linen resembling common or garden gunny sackings. It comes in two colors natural linen or gray.

The coat is a loose belted military model with a scarf collar, that wraps like a muffler around the throat and chin, both ends of this muffler effect and the large patch pockets on the skirt of the coat are hectically aglow with a futuristic bird and fruit design hand embroidered in purple, blue, yellow, green and red heavy twist.

The close hat is built like an Australian officers cap and is of the linen with a narrow brim of dark blue straw. The same vividly embroidered design embellishes the front.

For those who need a less trying shape a little crush hat of grey linen is offered more simply embroidered in a few simply impossible posies. The loose coat of the grey has pockets and cuffs embroidered in the weird flora and a plain rolling collar with revers instead of the scarf effect.

They are both swagger and smart and the possession of such a stunning outfit is in itself sufficient motive for motoring.

Absentminded.

Mrs. Flatbush—is your husband absentminded? Mrs. Bensonhurst—I should say he was! Why, this morning he set the alarm clock at 6 and then forgot what he had set it for.—Yonkers Statesman.

THE BRAINERD DAILY DISPATCH

SHARPS AND FLATS

(By Fidd)

It is better to do things and make mistakes than to stagnate and do nothing. Success to all who "do and dare."

When is an orchestra a Symphony orchestra? Is an apple tree only an apple tree after bearing fruit or is it an apple tree even in its various previous states of development? Must a symphony orchestra be complete to the very last music stand and instrument in order to justify its existence and lay claim to this title?

The greatest impediment to musical progress in Brainerd are the people who wish to be paid for every move they make and are afraid of doing something for others. They never want to do anything and they don't want anybody else to do anything.

Let's all get together and see if it is possible to hold our symphony rehearsals at the Y. M. C. A. next fall. This organization is always glad to aid any cause which is sure to benefit the young people and assist any movement that will refine the upgrowing generation.

Onion Nickols, a very earnest and promising student of the violin and member of the Brainerd Symphony left last Thursday to join the army. Every member of the orchestra hope for his safe return.

Hundreds of Brainerd people will be shocked at the news that Mrs. Day of Duluth is dead. Mrs. Day is the teacher and accompanied Louis Roos Gombberg, the youthful pianist, on his recent visit to Brainerd. Everyone who knows Little Gombberg and his love for his teacher, appreciate what an awful loss this will mean to the musical world. We hope some one may see visions and make possible the further development of a genius.

While Mr. Bergh was at Spooner, Wis., a very delightful musical evening took place to which every lover of music was invited. Dr. Badeaux, who possesses a remarkable voice, Paul Recher, a fine violinist, Mary Dexter and Mrs. Crocker, both pianists, and Mr. Bergh were responsible for the event.

Only about one out of ten towns or cities in Minnesota or Wisconsin possess a violinist. Opportunities were never better and will still be greater in the future. Do you just dream about what you'll do or are you practicing?

Don't ever mind the bark of the "dog in the manger." It is a good indicator by which to gauge the tempo of your progress. The only time to worry is when they stop barking; that is always a danger signal and a good indication for more action on your part.

Dudley Dexter, "somewhere in the United States," has an entirely new way of catching trout.

Nearly every large picture house in St. Paul has done away with orchestras and are using just a pipe organ. Why?

The form of music most worth while to work for, the most complete and perfect of all music, the only instrument possible in the world is the orchestra. There is nothing else that will so develop musical taste and awaken interest in music.

The greatest soprano who ever lived is Amelita Salli-Curel of the Chicago Grand Opera company.

The world famous Kneisel quartette has disbanded for all time.

Everything musical should be encouraged and assisted in spite of the war. It means a great deal to the future of the nation that are should survive. Let us all hope to continue the lofty standard set here that we may be an example to others.

There has been great progress in music in this country during the last ten years; people seem to live it more and more as time goes on.

Ragtime in its influence, is much the same in effect as cheap literature.

Hardly anything of importance is accomplished without an obligato of croaking.

Norway will have no more of German music. They went so far as to refuse Nikisch, the great conductor, the privilege of appearing on a symphony program at Christiania.

TRENCH FIGHTER IN NORTHERN FRANCE

Charles Wilmer, Home on Furlough, to Address Each Meeting of the Salvation Army

TONIGHT AND TOMORROW

Phyllis Wilmer, Daughter of Revivalist Wilmer, Member Girl Guards, Will Sing

In spite of outdoor attractions during this beautiful weather, it is very certain that the local corps of the Salvation Army is getting increasing crowds every night. Colonel Brewster's meeting last night was a rousing success. Major William Kiddle led the first portion of the meeting in song and testimony after which the colonel spoke on "The Urgency of Child Conversion and Consequent Sheparding."

Tonight Mr. Wilmer, the northern provincial revivalist, resumes the leadership of the special service. He is being assisted tonight by his eldest son, Charles Wilmer, home on leave from the trenches in northern France, who although somewhat crippled, will address each meeting tonight and tomorrow and undoubtedly say something concerning the terrible European war.

Phyllis Wilmer, the ten year old daughter of the revivalist and member of the Minneapolis Girl Guards, is also expected to sing in most of the meetings. Both Captain and Mrs. Herbert Belsham will take part in each service. Miss Patterson will sing and Miss Hazel Reed of Mankato, will preside at the piano. Services will be held tonight at eight o'clock and on Sunday at 11 A. M. and 3 and 8 o'clock P. M.

FIRST MINE STRIKE CONFERENCE FAILS

Butte, Mont., June 30.—The first effort to bring the electricians, who are striking for higher wages and recognition of the Metal Mine Workers' union, into a conference with the Montana Power company failed when the electricians refused to meet the company officials. It is expected that a conference will be arranged later.

The electricians, it was stated by a member of the union, did not go into the conference because the instructions received from the Metal Trades council did not agree with those received from their own union. The Metal Trades council is composed of the electricians and the machinists, boilermakers and blacksmiths, who have declared sympathetic strikes.

A SONG OF THE NORTH STAR STATE

Tune—"The Battle Hymn of the Republic."

WORDS BY P. B. NETTLETON, BRAINERD, MINN.—(In 1902)

The State of Minnesota lies midway between the seas.
It starts the Mississippi from its lake among pine trees,
It is bordered on the northland by the "Unsalted Seas,"
It's the state that's marching on.

CHORUS

The North Star State of the Union,
The Iron Ore State of the Union,
The Bread and Butter State of the Union,
And it's grandly marching on.

There are homes upon the prairies, by the woodlands and lake shore.
There are farms and fields and dairies fine and ample room for more,
Famed falls of Minnehaha, where the laughing waters pour,
In the state that's marching on.

CHORUS

The people of all Nations find a hearty welcome here.
The sturdy sons of Northland and the German "mit" his beer,
They all love Minnesota with its lakes and skies so clear,
In the state that's marching on.

CHORUS

In the war of the Rebellion, Father Abraham made his call,
The old First Minnesota boys responded first of all,
At Gettysburg they saved the day, though terrible their fall,
As they charged madly on.

CHORUS

"The Old First Boys" saved the Union,
That gallant desperate charge saved the Union,
They faced a glorious death for the Union,
And their souls are marching on.

CHORUS

In August, Eighteen sixty-two, midst Indian war cries sound,
One thousand settlers lost their lives and terror reigned around,
Brave pioneers, they sent those "Reds" to their happy hunting ground,
And they went marching on.

CHORUS

In the Spanish war of "Ninety Eight" rang out McKinley's call,
The 12th, 13th, 14th, 15th shot forth like a canon-ball,
They left their homes and sweethearts for their country first of all,
And they marched bravely on.

CHORUS

MISSISSIPPI MINED FOR LOGS

Dredge Will Reclaim Lumber From Deadheads From Minneapolis to the Headwaters

FORTUNE IN SUNKEN LOGS

Parker-Kellogg Lumber Co. Formerly Had Sawmill at Brainerd, Now Have One at Ft. Ripley

Sunken logs, lost beneath the waters of the Mississippi river many years ago, and now being "mined" from the river bed by machinery, will be turned into 10,000,000, possibly 15,000,000 feet of lumber this season, according to P. M. Parker, president of the Parker-Kellogg Lumber company of Minneapolis, today. The river, worked by lumbermen for 70 years, is declared to be fairly paved with logs from Minneapolis to the headwaters.

"There will be a general cleanup," R. H. Chute, secretary of the Mississippi & Rum River Boom company, said today. "No one knows how much there is of this sunken log supply, but we believe they are thick all the way along, and they make excellent lumber."

"We have been doing some sawing on these logs at Brainerd for years, but this year have two mills running, one at Parker's Sliding, just below Fort Ripley, with a capacity of 50,000 feet a day, and one at Topeka, a little farther down, sawing 15,000 feet a day.

"We have three steamboats at work. Many of the logs are imbedded in sand and have formed islands. We go after them with a 'steam crab,' a sort of derrick with a wire cable."

log brought up from the depths of the river. Each log is marked and its owner, if he can be found, will receive a stated contract price for it.

SENATORS ABANDON PROHIBITION FIGHT

Washington, June 30.—Informal agreement was reached by the prohibition forces in the senate for virtual abandonment of the fight to include beer and wines in the liquor legislation in connection with the food control bill.

This action followed the announcement by President Wilson that "it undoubtedly would be in the public interest in this very critical matter if the friends of those provisions should consent to their elimination from the present measure."

Confinement of prohibition legislation to distilled beverages without interference with manufacture of beer and wines, it is generally agreed, will result.

Prohibition leaders were asked by the president, in order to prevent delay in passing the food control bill, to drop their fight against the manufacture of beer, wines and other light intoxicants.

With a formal response from the drys deferred senate leaders of all factions quickly reached an understanding to limit absolute prohibition to distilled spirits.

CARS CRASH ON BRAINERD ROAD

Eight Occupants of Two Machines Escape Injury in the Smash-Up Near Topeka

DRIVER BRAINERD CAR BLAMED

Accident an Aggravating One, Claim Being Made Brainerd Men Were Intoxicated

(Little Falls Transcript)

Two automobiles were smashed and eight occupants of the two cars escaped injury when the machines crashed together on the Brainerd road, just north of Topeka, Thursday night.

D. A. Leahy, who is employed at the Young & Gulin saloon here, was driving one of the cars and had as passengers L. W. Carson and Tom Pickett, whom he had picked up after their car broke down, and two boys, one standing on each running board. His car is a runabout. The other car was driven by a Brainerd man and had as passengers two other Brainerd men. The machine is a five-passenger Ford and was not owned by the men who were using it.

According to the occupants of the Leahy car, the men in the Brainerd machine were intoxicated and liquor was found in the car. They will be arrested and may be charged with attempting to introduce liquor into the Indian Hill country. Leahy was far out on the right hand side of the road and the other car swerved across and struck his car on the side, they say. The Brainerd car turned completely over and started to burn, but the fire did not reach the gasoline. The men crawled out from under it. Both cars are badly smashed.

THE MYSTERIOUS SAW

John F. Flood, Factory Representative of the Atkins People, Explains How Saw Works

The mysterious little Atkins saw which has been industriously operating in the D. M. Clark & Co. window, has caused many people to wonder how the mechanism managed to push a saw through a plank unaided by human hands.

John C. Flood, factory representative of this popular line of tools explained that in the bottom of the case is a Westinghouse motor which runs a bicycle chain through the legs of the trestle board and on this is a little cog wheel in which the teeth of the saw fit. The teeth of the saw are regular metal saw teeth and the saw being perfectly balanced on the cogs, is worked back and forth by the chain.

At the base is a needless roll which gives the talking points of Silver Steel Saws. This saw, like the others of the famous line, said Mr. Wood, just about run on their own reputation.

A. Hagberg, owner of the Model Meat Market, who had $150 worth of hides stolen from him early Friday morning, was his own detective and this morning found the hides in a pile back of D. M. Clark & Co.'s warehouse.

They were in fairly good shape except losing some pounds in shrinkage, the hot sun having played on them for some time.

AN AWAKENING RESPONSE MADE

Capt. Ned M. Green Returns from a Tour of Cities Where he Urged Recruiting be Done

VISITED BRAINERD RECENTLY

Prime Efforts of Local Defense Councils is to Make a Good Showing by July Fourth

Awakening response to the call for recruits was reported by Capt. Ned M. Green, U. S. A., when he returned to Duluth from a week's trip through the western part of the state. In his tour he visited Brainerd, Little Falls, Staples, Wadena, Fergus Falls, Crookston, and Thief River Falls.

He declared that the prime efforts of local defense councils in every community was to enlist enough recruits to make a creditable showing July 4.

"They are organizing everywhere to help the government with this work," he said. "Those communities that haven't formed recruiting boosters or local defense councils to take hold of the recruiting proposition, should do so at once. They're going to see how many men in each community has answered the call by July 4. The day will be especially good for these new additions to Uncle Sam's forces."

Defense councils in every community have made up a list of eligible men. Merely publicity is not enough. The men have to be seen personally and urged to enlist and then they will respond.

The western part of the state is coming to the realization that every man is needed who can possibly be spared. We want to do all in our power to have all eligible men in Duluth in the Fourth of July parade as members of the national guard.

These who are hanging by in the expectation that they may not be drafted are likely to be badly disappointed. And we shall be unable to take any more men in our contingents after the draft has been announced."

NO BOYS UNDER 18 YEARS FOR NAVY

On and after July 1 no applicants for enlistment in the United States navy will be received who are under 18 years of age. This order, which applies to apprentice seamen, was received from Washington by Special Recruiting Officer A. K. Boyd of the Brainerd naval recruiting station today. Officer Boyd has several applicants under 18 years and these he urges to report at once so as to enter the service before they become ineligible.

He was unconscious most of the time, having concussion of the brain and when able to talk his mind wandered and the authorities telephoned to Duluth, Faribault, Brainerd and other places before they were able to identify him.

With care and nursing at his home it is expected he will be able to sit up again in a few weeks.

KINIC KINIC CIGARETTES

Factory to be Established at Barrows and Will be Running Inside of a Month

CAPACITY 50,000 PER DAY

Gus Beaulieu is Now in the East Selecting the Machinery and Perfecting Arrangements

Unless something unforeseen takes place between now and the end of next month, it is quite probable that a Kinic Kinic cigarette factory will be in full operation at Barrows by that time, says the Chippewa Tomahawk.

The owners of the factory expect to employ members of the Chippewa reservations as far as possible to operate the factory, and as salesmen.

The capacity of the factory will be about fifty thousand cigarettes per day, and it is expected that from three to five hundred pounds of Kinic Kinic and an equal amount of tobacco will be used daily in manufacturing the cigarettes.

Gus H. Beaulieu left Barrows for Washington, D. C., last Monday and he will go to Brooklyn, N. Y., to purchase machinery for the cigarette factory that will be established here.
